Report of Cigarettes Made by Nonparticipating Manufacturers Imported into Louisiana

License number	Name of licensee	FEIN or Social Security Number	Reporting month/year
Contact person	Telephone number

Instructions: The information on this report is required to comply with the Master Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) entered into between certain tobacco manufacturers (“Participating Manufacturers”) and the State of Louisiana. As part of the Agreement, information about cigarettes and loose-leaf tobacco suitable for making cigarettes (“roll-your-own”), made by manufacturers who did not sign the Agreement (“Non-Participating Manufacturers”) must be compiled by the State. A list of Participating Manufacturers (PM) as of September 5, 2002 appears at the bottom of this form. You will be notified of any future additional PMs. If you purchase cigarettes and/or roll-your-own tobacco from a manufacturer, either directly or through a distributor, which is not a participating manufacturer, complete this form and attach it to your monthly Cigarette and Tobacco Products Excise Tax Return, Form R-5604, and forward a copy of form 5604-C to the Department of Justice, P.O. Box 94095, Baton Rouge, LA, 70804. Report only cigarettes and “roll-your-own” made by manufacturers not listed below. If you did not purchase cigarettes or “roll-your-own” from manufacturers not listed below, this report must be filed indicating such.
